SCENIC FLOAT TRIPS
IN GRAND TETON
NATIONAL PARK

Since 1963

Barker-Ewing Float Trips

Our 1963 brochure cover, by renowned Jackson Hole artist Grant "Tiny" Hagen.

SPECTACULAR SCENERY.
THRILLING WILDLIFE.
FASCINATING HISTORY.

Way back in 1963, local river runner Dick Barker pioneered the ten-mile float trip from Deadman's Bar to Moose on the wild and scenic Snake River through the heart of Grand Teton National Park.

Dick Barker

Within a few short years, Dick's single raft could no longer accommodate the demand. So he joined forces with outfitter Frank Ewing to create Barker-Ewing Float Trips, and the company earned a lasting reputation for operating safe, high-quality interpretive raft trips in the National Park and the Snake River Canyon.

In 1985, the partnership was divided into two separate family businesses: Barker-Ewing Scenic Float Trips and Barker-Ewing Whitewater.

Now entering our 58th season, Barker-Ewing Scenic Float Trips remains the gold standard in scenic rafting, and is proud to be an Official Concessioner of Grand Teton National Park.

In 2009,
Congress added the Snake River Headwaters to the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System.
We are honored to be floating within the only stretch of the Snake River in Jackson Hole to receive the "Scenic" designation. This photograph, taken just below our launch point at Deadman's Bar, shows the first mile of our ten-mile route through Grand Teton National Park.

MEET OUR RIVER GUIDES

Eric Barker

Eric began guiding for the family business in 1983, and has logged almost 28,000 miles on the Snake River.

Michael Inman

Michael, our Senior Boatman, became a Snake River guide in 1999, and has logged over 37,000 miles with us.

Neil Huckin

Neil carries on a family tradition: his Uncle Dick founded Barker-Ewing, and his father Tom guided in the late '60s.

Grant Bishop

Grant joined us in 2006, and has rafted and kayaked numerous rivers around the country.

Travis Kryger

Travis has been with us since 2007, and was the last guide to be trained by "Legend of the Snake" Dick Barker.

Jim Stanford

Jim has been guiding on the Snake River since 1994, with experience on the Grand Canyon and Hell's Canyon too.

Peter Ericson

Peter is a trained naturalist with an emphasis on large animal biology and geology.

Jed Huckin

Jed joined his brother and started guiding for the family business founded by his uncle, Dick Barker, in 2006.

Reynolds Pomeroy

Reynolds joined Barker-Ewing in 2013. With a background in Resource Management, he is a Snake River enthusiast.

Lynn Kennen

Lynn joined us in 2019 after spending 18 years as a Class V whitewater guide and trip leader on a number of rivers.

James Hull

James spends his year guiding on the Snake River and ski coaching in Utah, sharing his love of the great outdoors.

Kris Vrolijk

Kris floated rivers in Tennessee, West Virginia, and Georgia 20+ years ago before arriving in Jackson.

WHERE TO MEET

Our trips start in Moose, Wyoming. Park in the Float Trip Parking Lot across the street from the GTNP Visitor's Center. You'll be picked up in our green Barker-Ewing van, and driven to the launch site, ten miles upriver. After your float down the Snake, you'll end the trip about 100 yards from your car.

FLOAT TRIP FAQ'S

How long does the 10-Mile Classic float trip take?

With an approximate round-trip time of 2.5 – 3 hours, this 10-mile trip is the ideal length, long enough for a full river adventure, yet short enough to allow you to enjoy other Jackson Hole activities the same day..

What should we bring?

- Casual clothing such as slacks or jeans
- Jacket or sweater
- Soft-soled shoes
- Hat with visor
- Water bottle
- Sunscreen and sunglasses
- Cameras and binoculars (at your own risk)

What does Barker-Ewing provide?

- Transportation from Moose Village to the launch site (you'll end the float trip about a hundred yards from your car)
- Rain ponchos in the event of sudden showers
- Life preservers, which must be worn at all times when in the rafts
- For private float trips, we provide a cooler with ice for your use

May we bring young children?

The minimum age for children on our float trips is six years with a minimum weight of 50 pounds.

What if the weather is bad?

In the event of questionable weather, please call us about an hour before your scheduled departure. Weather conditions may vary throughout the valley, and it is often difficult to predict prevailing conditions until very close to the meeting time. We reserve the right to cancel trips due to inclement weather.

What times of day do you offer float trips?

Float Trip times vary according to hours of available daylight and river water levels. Please visit barkerewing.com/reservations and select a date for current float times or call us at 1.800.365.1800 or 307.733.1800.

Is there whitewater on this trip?

This stretch of the Snake River runs swiftly in places, and slowly in others. Though you may encounter an occasional splash, this is not a whitewater trip, and you can expect to stay dry.
